ACADEMY

he Infant Jesus Academy (IJA), Asaba is a Catholic co-educational private day and boarding school, drawn from various parts of the world and from across many different walks of life.

Founded on the 15th of November

1999 by late Mr. Augustine D. Okwechime and the foundation laid by His Lordship, the Catholic Bishop of Issele-Uku, Dr. Michael Odogwu-Elue, IJA is situated beautifully opposite the Government House of Delta State in Asaba.

Academic activities started in September 2002 and the school Proprietress (till date) is Mrs. Rose A. Okwechime.

IJA is brought together by a shared belief in the power of an outstanding education to help young people succeed and to change lives, families, communities, nations – and even the world – for the better.

We are very deliberate in fostering a school culture of excellence, integrity, and Christian servanthood.

Our academic program provides differentiated instruction to meet the needs of each learner to the best of our ability. The entire spectrum of educational programs at IJA is academically challenging and engaging for every child.

We offer both Nigerian and British curricula.

Curriculum:

We run academic programs well aligned with the specification of the Nigerian National Policy on Education for the Year 7 to Year 12.

Years 7 to 9 constitute the Junior Secondary School. Here, emphasis is on the basic skills in

- English Studies,
- Mathematics,
- Basic Science,
- Basic Technology,
- Physics Technology,
- Social Studies,
- Christian Religious Studies,
- Physical and Health Education

- French,
- Business Studies,
- Civic Education,
- Igbo language,
- Cultural and Creative Art (Drama, Music, Fine Art),
- Home Economics and
- Computer Studies.

Curriculum:

Years 10 to 12 make up the Senior Secondary School. At this level, there is a wide spectrum of academic subjects to be studied by the learners.

The subjects are:

- English language,
- Mathematics,
- Computer Studies,
- Civic Education,
- Chemistry,
- Physics,

- Visual Art,
- Bookkeeping,
- Geography,
- Further Mathematics,
- Technical Drawing,
- Foods and Nutrition,
- Igbo language and
- French.

Curriculum:

Our teachers are dedicated professionals that teach a wide variety of academic subjects and we prepare our learners for local (within the country Nigeria) and international exams, such as:

- Basic Education Certificate Examination, BECE ( for Year 9)
- Cambridge Checkpoint Examination (for Year 9)
- West African Senior School Certificate Examination, WASSCE (for Year 12)
- National Examination Council Examinations, NECO (for Year 12)
- University Matriculation Examinations, UME (for Year 12)
- International General Certificate of Secondary School Education, IGCSE (for Year 11 12)
- Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) for Admissions into Universities and Colleges in America and Canada.
- International English Language Testing System, (IELTS)
- Diplomedetudes en langue francaise (DELF) for all categories of learners from Year 9 to Year 12. (This is a French proficiency examination.)

EXTRACURRICULAR

Activities:

We are very keen on building our learners all round. As a result, we provide our learners with a wide range of extra curricular activities (club activities and sporting activities).

Some of these include:

- Athletics
- Ayo game
- Badminton
- Chess
- Cricket
- Football
- JETS Club
- Literary and Debate Club
- Model United Nations/Public Speaking
- Music Club

House

The Boarding house was built and started in September 2002. Two buildings, set on four floors. One building for boys and one for girls.

The refectory serves as the prep hall and they are separated for boys and girls just like the hostels.

THE DAY School

Our day schooling learners are never left out.

We have well conducive busses for the day learners that pick and drop off our learners at the respective locations as approved by their parents/guardians.

Classes starts at 8.00am

Snack break at 10.00am

Lunch is at 12.05pm

Closing is at 3.00pm

I look forward to hearing your success stories and even bumping into you at reputable high-tech companies, banks, hospitals and even schools!

My Dear Class of 2021!

What a resilient bunch you all are!! We give thanks to God as HE has kept us through the global pandemic and has brought us up to this very momentous milestone at the Academy,

We are celebrating the tenacity, drive and hard work of our graduating learners in an exceptional era filled with challenges and opportunities. I have every confidence that you have been a special mold which has shaped your future as you proceed to the next level up.

2021 has been a remarkably busy year with many changes. We welcomed our Principal, Most Rev. Dr. Otis V. Wilks, who has helped develop and drive our core strategy of quality learning improvements, safeguarding and diversity with progress. The changes in mindsets and behavior from staff and learners have been commendable and profoundly acknowledged. It is an exciting time, as change is the new norm. The team is focused on accelerating learning, using current theory and evidence to improve professional practice.

For my Yr. 12 learners graduating today, I want to congratulate all you wonderful young adults in your achievement today, and sincerely hope that as you leave your Alma Mata, you remain Ambassadors of IJA and exemplary in your work and home lives, with Infant Jesus at the core of your thoughts and actions.

We are living in different times now, so agility, adaptability and focus will influence your paths to discovery, intrigue, successes, and challenges with twists and turns you couldn't make up in an adventure novel. So, you MUST remember who you are and what you stand for, so you are not misled and get lost out there. Pray and ask for guidance from our precious Infant Jesus to make the most of the opportunities and inspire others.

I look forward to hearing your success stories and even bumping into you at reputable high-tech companies, banks, hospitals and even schools!

I am indeed proud of you all and believe your parents would be even more proud as they Support your journey into life and all its offerings. Do keep me posted!

To the Principal, SLT and all the hardworking staff, both teaching and supporting staff, as ever I would like to thank you all, for your support throughout the year and the real gratuity is this moment and every moment you hear of or see the fantastic outcome of the learner YOU all molded into excellence.

Finally, I would like to wish you all a safe, enjoyable and relaxing break, whether it is before the start of a new academic year OR the beginning of a new journey into next stage of life's adventures, may God guide and protect you all the way at every single step.

Good luck and God's blessings be with you all in your future endeavors! Your Proprietress and Mother,

Rose Ada Okwechime

Be Wise!

Wisdom is the one of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit. It gives us a loving knowledge of God and of people and created things insofar as they refer to him. It is the knowledge to do good and avoid evil. St. Thomas Aquinas teaches that the object of this gift is principally God himself and divine things but it also includes the things of this world insofar as they come from God and are ordered to him.

More so, wisdom can be seen as the ability to make a decision based on the combination of knowledge, experience and intuitive understanding; in other words, the discretionary use of knowledge for the greatest good. It is the gift that strengthens our faith, fortifies hope, perfects charity and promotes the practice of virtue in the highest degree.

Wisdom in a practical sense means knowing the good to achieve and working hard to get it. The Roman adage that articulates this idea says, "Quid quid agas, prudenter agas, et respice finem" which means (whatever you do, do wisely and look to the end). The end could be immediate in terms of temporal goals or remote in terms of eternal goal. Wisdom thus, is the ability to be focused towards your goal and knowing how to achieve it.

Infant Jesus academy is a noble institution where learners acquire wisdom to know God and to confront every situation in life. The wisdom as the gift of the Holy Spirit is made active in the school through integral formation via spiritual, intellectual, social and psychological dimensions. I congratulate the citadel as she graduates another set of learners in character and learning. I urge the graduating students to be good ambassadors of their alma mater and be wise.

Remember, the fear of God is the beginning of wisdom!

Rev. Fr. Charles Ikenna Okeke

School Chaplain

Why, then, the world's mine oyster, which I with sword will open.

The famous words of the character Pistol in the William Shakespeare play, The Merry Wives of Windsor'.

Message:

Congratulations to all members of the graduating class of 2021!

Nearly twenty years ago, when the doors of our school were opened to our first learners, it was the vision of the late founder and proprietor that we would be a centre of excellence, in which young people were equipped with the education, the cultural grounding, and the social, life and workplace skills needed for success.

You are the fulfilment of that vision!

You leave school today as educated, mature, worldly-wise people, in whom our hopes for a bright tomorrow are fully invested. You leave with an education, and with a school experience, that gives you choice and control over the direction of your future lives. This choice and control, however, are not universal: they are not shared by all people of your age. You are therefore privileged to have them; and, as a school, we are humbled and honoured to be forever written into the story of how you have acquired them.

Whatever you go on to do in life and wherever you go on to do it, whatever trails you blaze and in whichever sectors you serve, we are proud of you. Indeed, you will always be an alumnus of the Infant Jesus Academy, Asaba. Remember this and make the most of the opportunities this will without question afford you.

The world is your oyster. So GO, now, and break it open! Well done to you all!

The Most Revd Dr OTIS V. WILKS CMgr FCMI, FCCTPrincipal

Message:

Congratulations to you all on your successful completion of your secondary education. I must say that the most difficult stay in the academic pursuit of any individual is what you have just completed.

I am optimistic and confident that all the training, grooming, nurturing, direction, admonition, guidance and counseling, chastisement and encouragement you have received from us have culminated in bringing out the best in you.

God has given us the grace to ride and tide ensuring that we stay focused. Do the right things because they are right. Always aspire to be an exemplary character, worthy of emulation.

I wish you all the best in your future endeavor.

Once again, congratulations!

Nwaezue Chibuzor

Technical drawing

It has been an awesome privilege interacting with some of you as learners of technical drawing over the two sessions we had together. Your resilience and willingness to get better at every task is endearing.

On this occasion of your graduation, I wish you Heaven's best, that God's blessings crown your future endeavors and keep the Infant Jesus Academy flag soaring high.

God bless you.

Othniel Omijie

English and Literature

Congratulations Class of 2021! I wish you continued success and happiness in all you do. I know how hard you have worked throughout your time at IJA, and I am so proud of you. Believe in yourselves as I believe in you. I look forward to seeing you at the top of the ladder in your chosen career. Best of luck, Class of 2021!

Diamond Enudi

Physics

Try to learn from every little thing, and no one would be wiser than you. Help yourself; others will come forward to help you as well.

Your preparation, efforts, hard work, and determination decides your success- nothing else. Take the oath to ace your day every morning. Best wishes to you. Don't forget, YOUR SUCCESS lies in your hand.

Ajede Chidinisu

Booking Keeping / Commerce

This is a huge step toward your future, and I can't wait to see what becomes of it. I hope you'll all come back and tell us. You have all been successful despite the disruptions occasioned by the COVID pandemic. You have all really done well and I am proud to be part of your success. Congratulations.

Odorume Mine

CRS/Civic Education

To the Class of 2021, I say this, Graduation is only a concept. In real life every day you graduate. Graduation is a process that goes on until the last day of your life. If you can grasp that, you'll make a difference. I say may your light of glory never go dim. May the wisdom of God remain in you, and may mighty doors be opened up for you all. Congratulations!!!

John C. Umemezie

English language

On behalf of myself and family, I sincerely and wholeheartedly wish to congratulate this wonderful set of 2021 on your graduation from this great School.

You are proof that good things come to those who are willing to sacrifice to reach a worthwhile goal. Words cannot express how proud I am to have been your English language Teacher.

"The reward of a thing well done is to have done it" Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Congratulations and best wishes. Journey well!

Advice:

Benjamin Abiodun Egbejimi

Chemistry

I rejoice with the graduating class of 2020/2021 for the successful completion of their academic pursuit at Infant Jesus Academy. May the Almighty God continue to be with you in your future endeavors. Be a good representative of your alma mater.

Congratulations!

Loveth Oghwere

History / Civic Education

You've taken on the most incredible, amazing journey of becoming a high school graduate. Continue to climb and aspire to excellence.

Your future is an unwritten symphony just awaiting your creative, daring and unique talent to make it a masterpiece. Here's to your impressive learner career. Now that you're graduating, you're at the beginning of a brand new journey, success and a brand new life. Congratulations graduates.

The high school days you leave behind you never will forget, but may the days that lie ahead be even better yet! God is the Ultimate, live your life for him and never trade Him for anything for no real success comes without him.

May you all be graced to stand the challenges of the University and life and may Wisdom guide your choices and decisions.

Best wishes and success! Congratulations!!

Udoh Maryrose

Class Manager

Congratulations to Year 12

I, Mrs. Udoh Maryrose, the class manager of year 12 yellow 2020/2021 session wish to congratulate the entire outgoing Year 12 2020/2021 session for successfully completing their examinations and moving on to their higher studies. Once again congratulations.

Congratulations to you all!

Akabude I. Peter

Economics

My heartiest congratulations go to all the outgoing year 12 Economics learners (the rational thinkers). Congratulations on successfully completing your senior secondary school examination/program. Knowing that human wants are numerous and why resources are limited (scarce), you need to be rational and maximize the available opportunity. Your efficiency in the labour market determines your achievement. Always work hard to be the best in your next adventures.

I therefore encourage you to look up because there are still many successes ahead you must work hard to achieve.

Knowing that life does not just throw the things you desire most to you. May the joy of today's celebration open more academic and other celebrations for you and best wishes for your next adventures.

BY ODORUME OGHENEMINE

Humility

Humility simply put, is that state of mind depicting a modest opinion of oneself. It can also be viewed as being easily approachable and accessible by all. Humility does not count on one's status, origin or colour. Mind you humility is not timidity. In humility you have equality and modesty.

Let's consider Jesus our Saviour in this concept: He did not consider His status as God the Son when He washed the feet of His disciples at the Last Supper. Jesus, with this action, taught that leadership entails service and flexibility to achieve the desired goal of the group.

Rigidity is good but not the best because the expected goal at times may not be achieved owing to the fact that some members of the group might be skeptical in delivering their duties, while flexibility on the other hand will at times lead to laxity. In essence what we all must embrace is modesty. Remember Jesus, whom we claim to be our mentor, was not given a name above all names until His action of taking up a humble death of dying on the Cross of Calvary. He was honored and glorified after His resurrection. If you want a name, honour, affluence and prestige, clothe yourself in humility and all these virtues will be added unto you, not by man but God who searches and sees our heart.

Therefore, in the words of a great poet, Niyi Osundare, I humbly plead that: 'If you have the leg of an elephant, Do not trample your way around, If you have the strength of a lion, Do not be a terror in the wild, If you have the fury of fire, Do not consume the world, If you have the power of a giant be wise enough to be humble. For power is a fickle guest. It comes calling today and tomorrow pitches its tent in a distant place.

Speech

Good day, Mr Chairman, our beloved Proprietress - Mrs Ada Rose Okwechime, members of the Board present here today, my dearest Principal - Dr Otis Wilks, our esteemed Parents, the Senior Leadership Team, members of staff, distinguished ladies and gentlemen.

I'm exceedingly delighted to warmly welcome you all to our graduation Ceremony.

Our journey in Infant Jesus Academy has been very exciting and extremely rewarding.

IJAA has successfully given us a solid foundation that has prepared us to step boldly into the world.

Ladies and gentlemen, please join me in giving to our alma mater a rousing round of applause.

Look at all of us seated here, we are not sure if we will ever see each other again or of what the world has in store for us but the training we have received here over the years will help us weather any storm we may encounter in life. We are thankful to God for the gift of life and our parents who stood by us through thick and thin. Thank you very much. We love you so much! We have been groomed to change the world. Our generation will make Nigeria better. We've already started with the IJA media team by sending a goodwill message out there, every day on social media. It's on a small scale but it's a start. Follow us on Instagram @Infantjesusacademyasaba to see what we've been up to.

To those who we are leaving behind, don't cry. Prepare yourselves, because soon it'll be your turn. For those in in Year 7, you might think it's going to be a long time but trust me it all happens in a flash. Soon you'll be graduating, just like us.

To those who we are leaving behind, don't cry.
Prepare yourselves, because soon it'll be your turn.

A few words of advice. Never take any good thing worth doing for granted. Believe in yourself and never give yourself limits. Everyone is limitless. Build yourself, keep building yourself, keep learning because the day one stops is the day one dies. Many times, problems will come and you'll feel like giving up, take a quick nap and when you wake up, just keep fighting until the end. If it's not about natural talent then it's about your will power. Remember that!

We'll miss everyone, our highly qualified teachers in particular. We owe you special thank you for your willingness to work with us never minding our misconceptions at times. Thank you and God bless you. Our Principal- Dr Otis Wilks, Vice Principal- Sir Acheka, Assistant Principal- Sir Nosa, House parents- Sir Samson and Sir Medi, Matrons Mrs Peace and our beloved Grandma. Thank you all so much. You all have watched us grow first hand. You are all our second parents. With love, thank you.

That said, we'll throw our caps today not for ourselves but for all of you, for making today a possibility, thank you and goodbye. Until we meet again.

MY EXPERIENCE AT

Infant Jesus Academy

"A Journey of a Thousand Miles Begins With One Footstep"! I still remember the very day I entered Infant Jesus Academy, I was filled with mixed feelings, happy that I was entering a new phase of my life to learn how to live by myself without my parents having to do everything for me, but sad because I was leaving my parents and at that time, I hadn't spent more than two weeks without my parents. Entering into the school finally, I was so happy that I saw a lot of people my age and my older brother was with me, so I felt safe. The first friend I made was Nduka Mac-Anthony. We had a good time talking so I looked forward to making more friends. Everything was all cherries and blossoms, until I found myself carrying my boxes to the hostel with my parents looking at me from across the field and then it all hit me, I was going to be without my parents for a whole six months or more. I didn't want to get all emotional, so that they wouldn't cry, I waved my final goodbye and the moment I got to the hostel, I cried my eyes out. It continued like that for hours until people came to comfort me. A senior came to me and told me a lot of soothing words, she told me not to worry, that there would be visiting days, she told me that the moment I made friends, that we would all laugh over the day that I cried, just like her and her friends.

As time went on, I made the most wonderful friends, some that left IJA with time and some that have been with me since the day I got to IJA. Not to mention, my academic experience at IJA has been a very wonderful one, one that I would love to tell my kids in the future.

A journey of a thousand miles begins with one footstep

Frankly, my time at IJA had been a wonderful one. IJA has helped me groom my academic life, religious life, social life and surprisingly, even my sporting life. The teachers at IJA have been the best for me, the ones that have left IJA both physically and even spiritually and most especially, the ones that are still here, giving their best at what they do. Personally, I feel that teachers who taught me, even if it was once from Jss1-Sss3, I am truly grateful for the big impact they have made in my life. I aspire to be a doctor, but without them, there is no way my dreams can materialize. In this context, I do not just mean my teachers that taught me in the classrooms, I mean every individual or adult who has guided me in any way through my secondary school journey.

Finally, leaving IJA, I am still stuck with mixed feelings, happy that I have finally completed this long journey of six years triumphantly, and sad that I am leaving the wonderful people I got to go through this journey with. My mum has always told me that secondary school friends are the true friends you will ever have and honestly, I don't doubt her because the friends I have made at IJA have been the best and I would forever cherish and love them.

My Pride

Six years! Six years of fun, six years of learning, six years of wonderful friends and teachers, Six years of creating lovely memories. Six good years at the wonderful Infant Jesus Academy, Asaba. I stepped into Infant Jesus Academy, Asaba on Sunday, September 13th, 2015. I resumed as a Year 7 (JS1) Student in the 2015/ 2016 academic session. I honestly can't believe I am graduating soon, I felt Year 7 was never going to end. I remember now being confused as I was as a Year 7 learner but I was able to get used to the daily routine and life as a learner at Infant Jesus Academy.

I am so glad that I decided to attend Infant Jesus Academy. IJAA has taught me self confidence, IJAA has helped me discover myself and what I want to be in future. I have benefited academically, physically, spiritually and morally from Infant Jesus Academy. IJAA has made me experienced and ready for the real world. My first friend at Infant Jesus Academy was Theola Abumere, we were both confused Year 7 learners assigned to the Blessed Fr Tansi hotel. As time went on, I made great friends like Ebahi Giwa-Amu, Anusionwu Genevieve, Gift Okonkw, Chelsea Odioko, Osafile Lorena, Jibunor Awele, Eguono Amromomanoh, Irene Anyaeji and so many others. IJAA has given me memories that I will never forget! I can never forget our extra curricular activities like Carnival night, inter house sports and Cultural day. My friends and I always looked forward to the Children's day celebration because it was an opportunity to eat delicious lellof rice.

Six years! Six years of fun, six years of learning, six years of wonderful friends and teachers, Six years of creating lovely memories. Six good years at the wonderful Infant Jesus Academy, Asaba

It was the closest thing to home but as time went on, we realized that IJAA was my home and I cared less about visiting days. I have been used to sleeping and waking up in the same hostel for the past six years. I am used to anticipating Wednesday nights because of rice and stew. I am used to waking up early on Saturday mornings for sports, I'm used to anticipating the birthday celebrations and a lot of other things. I was able to achieve a lot of things during my six years. I became a member of the IJAA media team, I became the hostel prefect, and I participated in a few competitions. I am grateful for everything I have learnt and I am grateful for everyone I have met,

Looking back at all these memories, am I ready to graduate and leave all these behind?

Thinking about all these brings tears, tears of joy! I will forever be proud of my INFANT JESUS ACADEMY!

MY FRIEND, MY DEAREST Friend

Iwuanyanwu Chidera

Do you know what's painful
When you lose something wonderful
In a wonderful way, I mean halfway
The pain hits you in a way
It starts lightly and skyrockets when you realise who it was.
Who would care enough to go halfway.
My friend, my dearest friend
I loved you as my friend
I gave you all that mattered as a friend
You weren't in need but I gave you indeed
My friend, my dearest friend

But i have to tell you
The day you decide to choose you
Do it in full betrayal and not partially
Don't you dare have pity
Don't you dare feel pity
We are no longer friends
We are more of enemies
And we'll remain that way
An apology won't cut it
Two times what you took won't cut it
So think long and hard before you choose you
Don't you dare, look at me and play that card
I know that card, I know that look
It wasn't your fault, right?

But you had a choice
I don't care if it wasn't much of a choice
Even if it was death
It's better than betrayal
My friend, my dearest friend
You did this to me
You left me
In tears with my fears
I wish you sold me out to someone else
That's not you
I would have cried for days
Saying, curse this earth!

With your arms around my shoulder saying sorry,

my friend
It will all pass over, my friend
But sadly,
My friend, my dearest friend
Why???
I could cry all day
All year, no way I'll let it go
But the next year I'll try again to trust, I'll be shattered but someone will pick up all my pieces
And I'll be whole again.
There is always someone, darling.
The million dollar question is what stops this someone from doing the same thing?
Well, I guess it won't be the first time
My friend, my dearest friend.

About forgiveness I love you You know that right I love you so much That's why there's no need for forgiveness It doesn't matter in this This love is all there is If you spoke to me I will reply Positively in fact Another fact is that I still get to choose my friends My friend, my dearest friend And Hey, calling you that doesn't mean anything though Cause like you know Friendship's a two way process It's not the words, it's the actions.

Amaka's World

MY FRIEND IN THE OTHER WORLD

Once upon a time, in the year 2010, a young man came into my life. Initially, I didn't notice the stuff he was made of. Gradually, he started leaving trails in my life. His impact was so strong that other people started enjoying the presence of the young man. A man filled with wisdom, knowledge and understanding of the times. The one and only Mr Cyril Sylvester Ewa.

Oyibo, you knew how to bring people out from their shelves. You were among those who made IJA seems like a family. You understood jokes. He would call me, "Amaka", turning round to answer him, he would turn to the other side. "Oyibo you called me", I would ask. He would ask, "Are you the only one answering Amaka?" "Come, Oyibo, I don't want to laugh today" but already laughing, Ewalicious would answer "but you are already laughing". Oyibo, how will I forget the names you called people based on quarters in Asaba - Umuonaje, Umuagu, etc. There was never a dull moment with the "Onye Ocha"- Oyibo in Nigeria. How will I not remember the jokes we shared, how your laughter would made you cough and change complexion to somehow reddish? Who will continue from where you stopped in making people laugh? Who will remind us of the need to settle our stomach? Hum! The aroma of Nigerian burger, A and B, oozing out from your small bag in the morning would make us to remember the need for breakfast. That your portable flask usually filled with white rice and sliced tomato stew, well-garnished, would make one to salivate in the afternoon.

Mr Ewa did not have time for side talks or back biting. He never had time to discuss people, rather business. He would tell people straight to their face the bullshit and majestically move on.

Ewalicious, the last chat I had with you was in July 2020, the same month you passed on. It was jokes about "Jungles". I was talking about the "assorted bush meat". How did I not know that the wicked servant was knocking at your door. Why did you open your door Mr Ewa? Why didn't you tell Mr death to get behind you? Who disappointed who? Amaka or Ewa? You would tell me – Amaka disappoint me but I am saying now Ewa disappoint me. Did you not hear that life starts at 40? Sly, why did you choose to start your life at the other side? Did anyone tell you that we are tired of you?

Our annual competition, when we let loose our guards, will always remind me of you. The boosting that your complexion (light) will make your house to win. The jokes throughout that term and the next. Oh! How can I forget our maiden cultural competition and the music played by one house? The music which you started singing for some of us – 'Anyi ga-agbaru umu nwanyi oso by Umuobiligbo' meaning Are we going to run from women? Oh! Ewaa! What a loss! Let me stop here please. You may not understand.

What a courageous person. Mr Ewa did not have time for side talks or back biting. He never had time to discuss people, rather business. He would tell people straight to their face the bullshit and majestically move on. He was not a noise maker either with his mouth or his footsteps. The gentle stride of Mr Sylvester did not connote cowardice rather to retain the stuff deposited in his brain. Sly, why did you take this quality to the other side? Why were you not courageous enough to slap and kick Mr death away from you?

My children would say "Mummy call Mr Ewa" if they had challenges in Mathematics. The way they got along with you as if you were age mates. You were always there for them without collecting a dime. That's how we roll. Amaka forget it. Hey! Ewaaa! What a life? You built so much confidence in your learners, my children a case study. The way you 'disgraced' mathematics, made all the mountains in Mathematics to become plain (you proved that there is no "mountain geometric" but plain – I beg to call it plain geometric. I don't want to laugh today). Sylvester, why did you go to the other world with such a brain?

Mr Ewa, your learners/pupils had been crying. To be honest, the tears couldn't flow from my eyes because I was hoping that you would wake up. At your burial, when I came to see you lying in that, - - - hum! I thought you would remember some "senior jokes" we shared and open your eyes. I changed direction to have a clearer view of you but lo and behold, Oyibo, you ignored me. That was when it dawn on me that something greater than Ewa is holding him back, that Ewa had left his friends for the other world. At the grave yard, I wanted to snap the last of you but my feet couldn't carry me.

Mr Ewa, Sly, Oyibo, Sylvester, Ewalicious goodbye till we meet to part no more where Mr death will not separate us. Byeeee.

To you reading this, kindly take care of yourself – Spirit, Soul and Body. Knowing fully that a day will come when a force greater than you will hold you back from meeting your family, friends and foes. Your foes will - - I don't know. Your friends will mourn you for few months. Your family will mourn you for few years. Nobody will want to see you even in the dream. Anybody who sees you then will start casting, binding and loosing - aggressive prayer (Laughter). Only your memories, either good or bad will be left behind. You will become ONCE UPON A TIME.

Simply remain, Amaka Nwachukwu
